The Festival and Fair for the benefit of St.

torney, Jos. H. Bradley, Esq, has given the following opinion in relation to the provisions of the registry law: WASHINGTON, 1st June, 1864.

R. Wallach, Esq., Mayor, &c.: SIR: I have, at your request, examined the joint resolution of Congress amending the registry law of this city.

A careful reading of it shows that it is nothing more than a legalizing of votes which have heretofore been received under a very doubtful construction of the fifth section of the charter of 1848. That section restricted the right of voting to those who had been residents of the city for one year next preceding the day of the election, and who had "been returned on the books of the Corporation during the year ending the 31st of December next preceding the day of the election as subject to a school tax for that year."

This joint resolution provides two modes for the admission of such electors as are not on the books of the Corporation but are otherwise qualified electors. First, on proof made pefore the commissioners themselves; second, on allidavits before a jus. tice of the peace. In either case the commissioners are to be satisfied of the right of the claimant; that he has resided here a year previous to the day he offers to vote, and is otherwise qualified as an elector. They may therefore interrogate him as to the nature of his residence, as well as its is used here, is exclusive. It must be his homehis fixed abode for the time being-not a sojourning, while he claims his home, domicil, or residence in some other place. If he has voted elsewhere during the year he has not been a resident here, or if he is liable to draft in some other place he is not a resident here, in the sense in which this law uses the term resident and residence.

The commissioners being satisfied in this respect as to his residence by examination of the claimant, and of some credible elector, and that he is otherwise qualified, must cause his name to be registered and receive his vote. . It would be difficult to frame the form of an affidavit to suit each individual case. But that which I send herewith may, with such modifications as each separate case may require, produce uniformity in the reception of such

It follows the form indicated in the law, still it is by no means conclusive, and in all cases where affidavits are produced it is clearly within the power of the commissioners it they shall see fit, to swear the claimant and interrogate him till they are satisfied as to the bona fide character of his residence.

I am. Sir, year most obedient servant, Jos. H. BRADLEY, Attorney. I add, in my opinion under this law, no man between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years who is not subject to military draft here funless he comes within some disability or exception] is entitled to vete here.

J. H. B., Attorney. Meeting of the National Democratic Association. Last night a special meeting of the National Democratic Association was held in pursuance to the following call, which appeared in the Constitutional Union of yesterday: "The Democratic National Association will meet on Thursday evening, June 2d, 1864, at eight o'clock, at their Hall, Parker's Building,

Pennsylvania avenue, between 6th and 7th streets, opposite the Metropolitan Hotel, for the transaction of important business. "The members of the different committees are requested to be punctual in attendance. "All Democrats and Conservative men, whether residents or sojourners in the city, who desire to become members of the Association, are invited to be present. "The zealous co-operation of every friend of Constitutional liberty, in promoting the purposes of the Association, is earnestly so-licited. Charles Mason President CHARLES MASON, President. "John F. Ennis, John Andrew Wise, D. J. Snow, Wm. M. Wallington, Secretaries." This meeting was attended by about fifty persons, among whom we noticed the Hon. Amos Kendall, Col. Florence, of the Constitutional Union, Col. D. R. McNair, formerly an officer of the House of Representatives, Ex-Collector Haliday, Ex-Marshal Hoover, Col. J. J. McCarty, Ex-Navy Agent Flinn, Judge O. Mason, of Iowa, formerly Commissioner of Patents. The chair was taken by Judge Mason, the president, and Mr. Flinn acted as secretary.

Juoge Mason, in calling the meeting to order, stated that it had been called for business purposes, and some may have attended to hear speaking, but it was not intended that any addresses would be made. The room would at an early day be formally opened, when addresses would be made. An invitation was given for all persons wishing to join the association to sign the constitution.

The secretary read the articles of association, the second of which is as follows:

"The object of the Association is the restoration and preservation of the Federal Goveri ment as it has heretofore existed under the Constitution of the United States-to secure to every American citizen all the rights and priwileges which are guarantied to him by that instrument, and to oppose to the utmost of our power the plans and purposes of all those who are in any way endeavoring to overthrow that except as therein contemplated. With this Object in view, we shall sustain with our whole might, and by every legitimate means within our power, the nominees of the convention to be held in Chicago on the 4th of July next, and we shall uncompromisingly insist upon the unqualified right of every voter to express through the ballot-box, in accordance with the constitutions and laws of the respective States, his free preference among the candidates presented to his choice at the presidential election in November next." In answer to a question the Chair stated that any qualified voter in any of the States and territories was eligible to membership, and an opportunity being given, about twenty-five persons signed the Constitution. Some dozen or more persons were also elected members.

The (hair stated that he had appointed the following gentlemen on the committees ordered by the Association:

Mr. Thomas B. Florence said he understood it was customary for this Asso ation to send delegates to Chicago, and he thought something shou d be done in the matter. He would there-fore move the appointment of 15 delegates to the Convention, to assemble at Chicago on the 4th of July next Mr. John F. Ennis suggested that the matin attendance. This question had always di-vided the Demogratic Jackson Association and it might prove a source of contention here. Mr. Florence said he merely made the suggestion in order to elicit an expression of opinion. He was very willing that the subject should lie over. Mr. Ennis said that since he had made the motion for Monday night the fact had been brought to his attention that Monday night was the night of the municipal election. He would therefore suggest Tuesday. Ex Marshal J D. Hoover, (the Treasurer of the Association) suggested that the members might want to go to Baltimore on Tuesday to help nominate Lincoln. (Laughter.) Mr. Florence said the association had but little to do so far as Mr. Lincoln's nomination w s concerned; but they had a great deal to do to defeat him after he was nominated. Tuesday evening next was therefore fixed as the time for the next meeting when the question of electing delegates will be consid-

Mr. Jas. F. Haliday said he did not see as many familiar faces at this meeting as he could have desired. There were not enough Democrats took the Constitutional Union, which was the only organ in this city that expressed their sentiments. He (Mr. H.) was satisfied that a large majority of the people of Washington were with the Association not withstanding all the office holders were located here. He was satisfied a very large and respectable club could be organized, and that it could make its influence felt in the coming campaign.

There being no business now before the association, Mr. Florence stated that he saw a gentleman present who was favorably known to fame, and moved he be invited to a seat upon the platform. He referred to Hon. Amos Ken-

Mr. Kendall was then invited to the platform, and he said that he felt honored by the attention thus shown him. He would aid the cause in which the association was engaged with all the talents vouchsafed to him in his old age, and with some of his means. The Chair stated that after this week the hall would be lighted up each night, and that there would be documents and papers there for the information of Democrats.

The meeting then adjourned.

THE FESTIVAL AT ISLAND HALL by the ladies of the 7th street Presbyterian church continues to be amazingly popular, a fact due to the tact with which it is managed, and the great number of objects of interest connected with the Fair.

For one thing the Fair room is perfectly radiant with pretty girls. We don't believe they all belong to the 7th street church! We don't believe any one church ever had so many pretty girls of its own! We believe that by some enterprising feat of managership the very pick of the 7th ward (so celebrated for handsome women) has been collected at this fair room in one dazzling blaze of beauty. The voting continues to go bravely on for the mayoralty-silver pitcher, the Seventh Ward candidate being ahead last evening. But the adherents of the other candidate threaten to come in with a rush at the close. after the tashion of the Grant voters at the New York fair. The polls will be closed at 10 o'clock to morrow, Saturday, evening, at which time the pitcher will be awarded to the successful candidate through their committee. The contest for the silver service appears to be ciose between the three editorial candidates.

SALE OF THE SMITHSONIAN HAY CROP .-Saturday the luxuriant crop of grass standing on the Smithsonian grounds was sold to the highest bidder.

The number of bidders in attendance was larger than usual, and the bidding proportionably lively. The successful bidder was Mr. Ryder, at about $740 for the grass standing The crop is to be cut and hauled by the purchaser, and the price would appear to be very high; but, at the present price of hay, Mr. R. will undoubtedly make a fair profit.

A MUSS IN THE CAMP .- Wednesday night about 12 o'clock a terrible disturbance occurred Ward. Women and whiskey were in some way connected with it. Municipal Election—Candidates, &c. MR EDITOR:—In my Card to the Voters of the Third Ward of Wednesday last, I purposely abstained from all personalities, and made no offensive allusions whatever to my competitor. A. R. Shepherd, or any one else. His communication of yesterday is filled with the vilest and most contemptible personal abuse, and in the most ungentlemanly and billingsgate language. This was, of course, to be expected, because he is incapable of using any other, it being an invariable law of nature that the stream must partake of the characteristics of its fountain; and where, as in this case, the one is wholly corrupt, the other will be equally filthy. I shall not follow his pernicious example, (however strong the temptation and abundant the material) and drag our personal quintels into the political arena, to the disgust of all honorable men; but simply content myself with pronouncing every one of his accusations against me to be unmilibrated as every follows. sated falsehoods, as revengeful, malicious and cowardly as ever fell, hissing hot, from the livid lips the damned, and known by himself to be such when he wrote them. JOSEPH F. BROWN.

MUNCHAUSEN THE SECOND REDIV-WASHINGTON, June 1, 1864. WASHINGTON, June 1, 1854.

Editor Star: In your issue of to-day I notice a card signed by Jos. F. Brown, the secretary of the Gaw Light Co. and my competitor for the position of Alderman from the Third Ward. I had hoped that "Munchausen" had been effectually silenced, but as he has again assailed me without provocation, I have no recourse but to give to the public another leaf in the history of this notorious individual.

Mr. Brown announces himself as the "only regularly selected candidate for Alderman in the ward; having at a certain ward meeting been nominated by a vote of nearly two to one over my com-petitor." &c. The subjoined extract from the Republican of that date, showing the mode by which the nomination was made, is all that is necessary to convince every candid mind that under the circumstances Mr. Brown's friends evinced moderation by being content with 78 votes, when, by the process indicated in the last clause of extracts, they could have had any amount of suffrage necessary to effect their purpose effect their purpose.
"Brown, 79; Shepherd, 43; Angus, 78; Moore, 43;
Larner, 52; Eberly, 41; Skirving, 72; Williams, 63;

Curtis 128.

The following was then declared the Ward ticket:
For Alderman-Joseph F. Brown.
For Common Councilmen-Job W. Augus, James Skirving, and W. B. Williams.

For Assessor—H. B. Curtis.

When the tellers were counting the votes they found eight tickets for Mr. Joseph F. Brown in one This fact thus stated taken in connection with the further fact, viz: that there were not seventy Third Ward voters present at the meeting in question, must cause a doubt in the minds of its citizens as to the genuineness of this nomination. The ticket nominated has never been announced by Mr. Brown or his friends.

Mr. Brown in his card states that he intends to "vote" for Mr. Wallach. How is it that Mr. Brown's most ardent supporters vehemently proclaim that he will support Mr. Semmes? The declaration of Mr. Brown that he will cast his vote for Mr. Wallach when considered is a state of the considered in the considered in the cast of the considered in the cast of lach, when considered in connection with the as-servations of his friends, renders his position servations of his friends, renders his position somewhat equivocal. It may be that he intends to rote for Mr. Wallach and support his antagonist, in imitation of the course pursued by him in 1850, when Mr. Brown voted an open ticket for Colonel Berret, the nominee of his (the Democratic) party, while at the same time, in fulfilment of a bargain made in order secure his own election without opsition, as Alderman from the Third Ward, he threw eighty votes of the Gas Company's employees for Col. Berret's opponent—thus securing for him the majority in the First Ward. There are some people who, cognizant of all the circumstances, even at this late day, involuntarily smile when reminded of the fact that notwithstanding this act of perfidy, this consistent Brown, having failed to defeat the man for whom he voted, coolly addressed him a letter of congratulation a few days later, resolving in his success and in that of the later, rejoicing in his success and in that of the party which he represented, viz: "the law and rder.' i e. the Democratic party!

Mr. Brown says that he has served seven years Mr. Brown says that he has served seven years in the councils, and (to use his own words) that he has 'never abused your confidence by using my official position to gratify private prejudices or personal animosities—nor given a vote that was not designed to advance your interests, individually and collectively." If Mr. Brown had been writing to the stockholders of the Gas Company, this language might have had somewhat the appearance of teracity. As it is, he must have a strange idea of the 'enlightened constituency' whom he so feelingly addresses. He has probably forgotten the official communication of Mayor Wallach, dated January 12, 18:3, from which it will be perceived that up to that time the Gas Company had charged this city, and had been paid since 18:3, (under a supposed verbal contract) the old rates for all gas furnished the corporation, the 'Secretary in charge' never having reduced the old rates for all gas furnished the corporation, the "Secretary in charge" never having reduced the price to the city; so that it was paying at the rate of 3s cents per hundred, while the Government and citizens were paying respectively 26 and 2ff cents per hundred feet. In all probability this guardian of our city's interests would have continued to charge at these rates, had not Mayor Wallach, with his usual care for the interest of our citizens, detected this gross overcharge. our citizens, detected this gross overcharge and called attention to it.

Is Mr. Brown advancing his constituents interests when he uses his position as a city legislator to increase the price of gas to consumers, in which effort he expects to succeed during the present Did Mr. Brown advance the interest of his con stituents, when he spent several thousand dollars of the ward funds on the "H street sewer," to benefit his property on the square in which he resides—and then auer the bill to cover up his tracks. For full particulars see National Intelligencer of July 9th, 1859.

Did not Mr. Brown's "private prejudices" prevent the City Councils from doing honor to our glorious General Grant on his first visit here, when the prevented the passage of a resolution of welcome to that distinguished officer, by moving an adjournment of the Board of Aldermen while the subject was under consideration, thereby preventing their adoption, and this because the resoluing their adoption, and this because the resolutions was introduced by me?

It were idle to attempt to recapitulate the constant and innumerable tergiversations of this unprincipled and aspiring man. False to friends, as well as foes; unscrupulous in the means to be applied to obtain any favorite object—ever prefering falsehood to truth—constantly making public interests subservient to his private ends; it is to be hoped that the day of retribution has come—that the mask of hypocrisy is at length to be drawn the mask of hypocrisy is at length to be drawn aside, and this embodiment of deceit exposed to the public gaze in all the hideous deformity of hi nature. (3t) ALEX. R. SHEPHERD.

During my late absence from the city, and without my knowledge, I was selected by the Unconditional Union men in meeting assembled, as their nominee for re-election to the Board of Aldermen. nominee for re-election to the Board of Aldermen, by a vote of nearly two to one for my competitor, (then as now) Mr. Shepherd, whose friends called the meeting, voted for their candidate, but being defeated, now repudiate its choice. I therefore regard myself, of course, as the only regularly selected candidate for Alderman in the Ward, solemnly avering that if Mr. Shepherd had have received that nomination me nearly would not be before rethat nomination, my name would not be before you to-day. There was, I learn, no preference expressed at the meeting in favor of any one for the Mayoralty, though the active friends of each of the candidates were present and participated in the proceedings. For this reason, doubtless, my name has been inserted for Alderman in both the tickets published in the Star. Having been frequently interrogated as to my preference for Mayor at the approaching election, I take this occasion to say, as I have always done, that I am the personal friend of both the deserving gentlemen who are aspirants for the office, and have been agreeably associated with them in the city Government for several years past, but, as Mr. Wallach has dis-charged the responsible duties of Mayor generally to my satisfaction, and is the present incumbent, I shall, therefore, cast my vote for him on Monday

For seven consecutive years I have represented our Ward in the City Council, and never abused your confidence by uzing my official position to gratify private presudices or personal animosities, nor given a vote that was not designed to advance your interests and prosperity, individually and collectively. If re elected, I shall pursue on all occasions, the same course, well knowing that only by so doing can I hope to merit or receive the approbation of an intelligent constituency.

June 1, 1864. [je 1-41] JOSEPH F. BROWN. For seven consecutive years I have represented

TO THE VOTERS OF THE THIRD WARD. Having this day seen my name upon the emmesticket as a candidate for Alderman of the Third Ward, and desirous of having my position distinctly understood, I have to say that I support Richard Wallach for re-election.
